

Free Support Services:

Now being offered at the Newburgh Free Library

The Newburgh Free Library and Catholic Charities have formed a new partnership to help our community find the services they need, have an empathic ear to listen and to provide referrals and support for challenges you and your family members may be going through.

Confidential services will be available at the Newburgh Free Library on Fridays.

We Provide:

- Person-centered treatment
- Connections to community resources and act as advocates
- Treatment sessions at home or in the community for the individual or family members
- Referrals to inpatient / outpatient programs
- Supports for re-entry into the community
- Medication-assisted treatment
- Nursing/psychiatric assessments
- 24-hour access to peer support
